Alex Newport is a grammy nominated, Los Angeles-based British producer, songwriter, arranger, composer and musician. His status was cemented in producing genre-defining artists At The Drive-In ('In/Casino/Out', 'This Station Is Non Operational' and 'Vaya') and The Mars Volta ('Tremulant').

Constantly at the cutting edge of credible yet commercial leaning alternative music Alex has gone on to produce and mix some of the heaviest hitters in the genre. In 2008 his work with Death Cab for Cutie was Grammy nominated and in 2011 he commenced an ongoing relationship with the Juno Award-winning Canadian singer-songwriter Dallas Green, AKA City And Colour, and mixed the album for the collaborative project between City and Colour and Pink called You + Me ("Rose Ave", RCA Records).

In February 2011, Newport produced City And Colour's "Little Hell" which was recorded and mixed entirely on analog tape. It was followed in 2013 with "The Hurry and the Harm" – the second consecutive album to reach #1 on the Canadian charts and a top 20 Billboard US album, and both albums reached Platinum sales status in Canada.

In 2013 Alex produced Bloc Party's critically acclaimed top five UK album "FOUR" (French Kiss Records). It was a return to form for the band with a more guitar oriented sound reminiscent of their debut "Silent Alarm".

Other notable productions and mixes include work with No Devotion, The Sounds, Frank Turner, Two Gallants and Tokyo's Polysics.

Recently, Alex mixed the debut album by Toronto buzzband Weaves, and produced & mixed the debut album for Brighton, UK faves Tigercub, the new EP from LA's Bleached as well as Moaning's Sub Pop debut album, and produced records for the UK's Estrons and Fizzy Blood, and Dangerbird Records newest signing Criminal Hygiene.

Alex also sings and performs as one half of Red Love, with Matt Tong (ex-Bloc Party) – their debut album was released in 2017.
